Triumph Housing Request for Reasonable Accommodations

Sometimes people with disabilities may need reasonable accommodation to take full advantage of the housing program and related services. A reasonable accommodation does not confer special treatment or advantage for the person with disability; rather, it makes the program fully accessible to them in a way that would otherwise not be possible due to their disability. For providing reasonable accommodation, the definite of a person with disability is:

A person with a physical or mental impairment that substantially limits one or more major life activities, has a record of such impairment, or is regarded as having such impairment. (The disability may not be apparent to others, i.e., a heart condition). I (the undersigned) am requesting the following reasonable accommodation from the housing program: ☐ Check if not applicable Housing retains the right to be shown how the requested accommodation enables the individual to access or use the program or related services. If more than one accommodation is equally effective in providing access to the programs and services, then housing retains the right to select the most efficient or economical choice.
